

Wall man named VP of operations for CFO firm

Joseph C. Worth of Wall has been appointed vice president of operations for B2B CFO of Phoenix, a chief financial officer services firm.

He joined the company as a partner in 2007. He has 30 years of financial and general management and transaction experience in many industries.

