

WORKPLACE

A brief look at hires, promotions, awards and honors

New hires and promotions

Rebecca "Becky" Aungst has been named to the newly-developed position of chief operating officer at Skills of Central Pennsylvania, Inc.,

Aungst

Aungst, who has served as regional vice president in Blair County for nine years, will work directly with the regional vice presidents to provide oversight of all programs and services provided to the people Skills supports to include community homes, community services, behavior support, mental health services and life sharing. She also will work directly with the Quality Improvement and Training Department to monitor and increase consistency throughout Skills sixteen county service area.

Steve Koval of State College has been named as a partner at B2B CFO, State College.

Koval joins B2B CFO after a 32-year successful corporate career in executive financial and IT management. He is the 13th B2B CFO partner in Pennsylvania providing CFO services to local business owners.

Awards and honors

Andrew Scott Crisp, Gary Glenn, Gail Miller and Marlene Stetson received the third annual Patient C.A.R.E. Awards honoring excellence in patient care and services from the medical staff at Mount Nittany Medical Center.

Crisp was the winner in the clinical category, Glenn in administration, Miller in research and Stetson in education.

Eric Kroner received the Allied Health Professional Excellence Award which honors an allied health staff member who upholds the standards of clinical care through excellence, service, citizenship and innovation.

Dr. Jack F. Rocco of Southern Alleghenies Elite Orthopedics has been named to the Board of Governors with the Shriners Hospital for Children, Philadelphia Unit.

Rocco

Rocco, an orthopedic surgeon with the Hollidaysburg practice, was named to a three-year term. Rocco worked at Shriners Hospital in 1994-95 and has been a member of the Jaffa Shrine since 2005.

Submissions for Workplace can be sent to Walt Frank at wfrank@altoonamirror.com. Please include the name of the individual, his or her present address, original hometown and high school and college from where he/she graduated, and information about the person's accomplishment.

